Hi Mike, Gordon, Jan
Hello,

Helen and Chip here. Thought we'd add more rumours to the mill!!! Chip has gossip on Uncle Harry. Chip found out on numerous occasions in discussions with your Grandmother Netta, there was an OLDER half brother in the family, known as Uncle Harry. Netta said he was gay so forget the offspring and Netta really liked him. So we can forget the cost of DNA tests, yes a babe was born was born on the wrong side of the blanket but he isnt in the family trees we have seen so far. What happened to him post war Chip doesnt know because Sydney and Netta went to Africa. Netta and Sydney lived in the house in Tevan Road, Addiscombe after the war(Sydney was demobbed from Royal Navy) so it must have been repaired after the fire.

Re Jeffery: Netta said he was originally a conscientious objector, and after the usual treatment in prison at that time, volunteered to serve in a non-combative role, as a UXB officer. He wasnt a coward just genuinely refused to kill another human being. Sydney also told me this as well. Jan's notation is wrong, Sydney said he survived the war in that role!! Poor bastard died after the war, stress can do that to the body.

Hope this helps fill in some gaps.

Keep us posted this is FASCINATING love Helen
